VARSITY LOSES TO ROCHESTER FIVE

Loss of Garner at Pivot Position Keenly Felt by Buff and Blue Team—Varsity Improves in Second Half

SCORE 32-24

Due to the absence of Capt. Garner from the Buff and Blue line-up, Rochester was able to even up the series with Hamilton by deefating the Buff and Blue on the Rochester court by the score of 32 to 24 last Saturday. The game was slow and neither team showed much brilliant basketball.

Hamilton started the scoring of the evening, when McGiffin dropped in two free throws. Kirchmaier immediately followed with a foul shot for Rochester and started the scoring for the big Yellow team. Callaghan and Kirchmaier then dropped in some pretty field baskets and put the Rochester team way in the lead. Hamilton was unable to recover during the rest of the game.

The first half was exceedingly slow, and the Hamilton team seemed to be unable to get under way. The defense was very weak and the Rochester forwards were able to cage five field baskets. The only man who was able to get the range of the Yellow basket was "Ike" McGiffin, who dropped in two pretty field goals before the whistle blew for the half. The score at half time was 16 to 8 in favor of the Rochester collegians.

The second half was considerably better from the standpoint of the Buff and Blue rooters. Hamilton seemed to have recovered from the inertia that had marked its playing during the initial period and showed somewhat of the style of playing that has marked the Buff and Blue games earlier in the season.

Hatch started the game going with a neat basket. Right after the tip-off he evaded his guard by pretty dribbling and scored. Brugler then scored for Rochester by putting in a long lucky shot. Doane did the same right afterward for Hamilton. Brugler then made a long dribble the entire length of the floor and evaded the Hamilton defense for a score. Hatch then dropped in two pretty one handed shots, which were followed by two shots by Brugler. Hamilton also accounted for a tally for the Buff and Blue.

The star of the game for Hamilton was McGiffin. He accounted for all of Hamilton's scoring during the first period, and made a good showing on the foul line. He accounted for eight free throws out of twelve tries. Doane and Hatch also played a good offensive game. Don Hamilton played a consistent game, preventing the Rochester quintet from scoring more than they did.

The Hamilton pass work was seriously handicapped by the absence of Garner, due to ineligibility. Garner has been the mainstay of the Buff and Blue pass work and the playing of the Hamilton team last Saturday was consequently pretty ragged. Marquardt was substituted for Smith, but was unable to show his former accurate eye for baskets.

Brugler and Callaghan were easily

INTERESTING TALK GIVEN BY ARCTIC EXPLORER

Illustrated Myers Lecture Tells of Travels "In Unknown Baffin Land"—Eskimo Life Pictured

Donald B. MacMillan, Professor of Anthropology at Bowdoin College and a noted arctic explorer, delivered a lecture on the subject "In Unknown Baffin Land," last Thursday night in the Hall of Commons. The lecture was illustrated throughout with six reels of film and fifty or more colored slides, depicting his travels in the frozen north.

The lecture was an entertaining and vividly real account of a perilous journey and extended visit among the Eskimos. The pictures began with the departure from the port in Maine. The "Bowdoin" was probably the smallest vessel to make the trip into the arctic regions. She was a stout little craft, built to withstand the terrific ice jams and to carry the greatest possible amount of provisions. MacMillan took his course along the coast of Labrador, the most scenicly beautiful spot of eastern North America. When the craft met the ice packs, she was forced to slow down. The ship had to be guided from the crow's nest. Just north of the Arctic Circle the "Bowdoin" was caught in the ice, a spot in which eleven ships had been crushed in a single day.

Later the party arrived at Greenland, a barren waste of 500,000 square miles. The natives came to meet them in sealskin skiffs and took them to their sealskin tents, in which they lived in the summer. Indian, Eskimo, and Japanese types were in all the tribes. The moving pictures showed the life of the Eskimo in all seasons of the year. It explained the ease with which they built their snow houses in the short time of two hours. It explained the interior plan, and the mode of living of the Eskimo. It pictured the Eskimo children running around without mittens in weather from sixty to seventy degrees below zero. It dealt with their occupations, with their sports. They knew how to train the big sled dogs and to win their affection. They knew how to hunt the white fox and to fight and capture the walrus. No story or account of a polar expedition in writing could ever leave the impression that the watching of the pictures gave to the audience.

The life of the Eskimo was not pictured, however, as a life of leisure. The women must chew the sealskin for a long time in order to soften the fibre enough to make it into mittens or boots. The children are men at twelve or fourteen years of age. Men and women from sixty to seventy years old have never had a drop of water on their bodies, yet they are the healthiest people in the world. The women help the men construct the snow houses. Sometimes three families live in one hut, with its imaginary partitions. The average snow house is fourteen feet in diameter and nine feet high, made cozy inside by skin linings.

Captain MacMillan also emphasized the scientific points of the expedition, the magnetic needle. Here in Clinton the needle points to the west of north. It is really pointing twelve hundred miles south of the north pole. It is

HAMILTON FENCERS BOW TO ARMY

Buff and Blue Makes Good Showing in First Intercollegiate Match—West Point Loses Epee Events

SCORE 12-4

Hamilton lost its first intercollegiate fencing match to the Army at West Point last Saturday by a 12-4 score.

The team, the first to represent the Buff and Blue in this branch of sport, consisted of John Ogilvie, '24, capt., William Johnson, '24, Donald Kittell, '24, Carl Stevens, '24, George Kittell, '25, Philip Scott, '25, and Frederick Scovel, '25. The match consisted of three events: sabre, epee, and foil. Hamilton lost all three sabre events by fairly close scores. In the second event, however, the Buff and Blue were clearly superior, allowing their opponents but one match out of five. In the nine foil matches, Hamilton lost seven by close scores and won two. In all, Hamilton men scored 51 points to their opponents' 80.

The score of a fencing meet is determined by the number of matches won. Out of the 17 matches, one was a double defeat ,making the score 12 matches for the Army and 4 for Hamilton.

This was an excellent showing for the Buff and Blue team against some of the best fencers in the country, and Coach Gelas is to be congratulated for his fine training of inexperienced material There are several more intercollegiate matches in prospect, at least one of which will be held on the Hill.

The summary: Sabre: Johnson 1, Castner 7; Ogilvie 3, Clark 7; Ogilvie 5, Castner 7.

Epee: Stevens 1, Gunn 0; Stevens 0, Nelson 1; D. Kittell 0, Gunn 0 (double touch, double defeat); D. Kittell 1, Nelson 0.

Foil: Scott 6, Connor 7; Scott 3, Tasker 7; Scott 3, Stebbins 7; Scovel 7, Tasker 3; Scovel 2, Connoor 7; Scovel 2, Stebbins 7; G. Kittell 7, Stebbins 6; G. Kittell 6, Tasker 7; G. Kittell 4, Kerr 7

DRAMATIC INTERPRETATION CLASS TO PRODUCE PLAYS

Professor Fancher has selected two plays which will be produced by the class in Dramatic Interpretation during this semester. These plays are: "The Queen's Enemies", the well-known tragedy of Lord Dunsany; and "The Mock Doctor," which is a translation by Henry Fielding of Moliere's "Le Medecin Malgre Lui."

Dunsany's tragedy will test the histronic powers of the class and will give them a chance to show ability in creating stage realism. The hilarious comedy of Moliere will give the class an unusual and exacting opportunity to act.

NEWMAN CLUB MEETING

The Newman Club will hold its first meeting of the new term on Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the home of Prof. C. K. Chase. Father Dwyer will start the first of a series of talks on the "Later History of the Church" and refreshments will be served after the meeting.

HAMILTON HOCKEY TEAM TRIUMPHS OVER COLUMBIA

Buff and Blue Vanquishes Clever New Yorkers in Fast Game—First Intercollegiate League Victory—W. Thompson and Marks Feature.

The Hamilton skaters defeated Columbia 2-1 Saturday night in the Russell Sage Building in the third Intercollegiate League game of the year. The game was clean, fast and closely fought throughout. Only two men were put off the ice for fouling. The Buff and Blue scored one goal in each of the first two two periods. Columbia's score came in the third period.

Captain Rollins at center, Rogers at defense, and Marshall at forward fought hard and gamely for the visitors. Watson Thompson was the star of the game. Several times he carried the puck the length of the rink in spite of lack of help from his team mates. Bates and Marlow each made several effective passes and were successful in breaking up Columbia's offensive play. Credit for the victory is largely due to Marks' stops at goal.

A tally of the stops made by the goal-guards reveals that Columbia made twenty-one accurate shots at Hamilton's goal, and Hamilton made only sixteen, exclusive of the goals scored. These figures do not include stops outside of the zone of the goal.

Marlow's long shots from the center of the rink were a feature of the game. Accurate guarding of the Columbia goal kept him from scoring a half dozen times.

During the first period Columbia shot eight times at Hamilton's goal. The Columbia goal guard only stopped four Hamilton shots. Hamilton's score came after eleven minutes and fifteen seconds of the period hod passed. Eight or ten players were massed together just to the right of Hamilton's goal. Watson Thomspon extracted the puck from the melee and shot it to Bates, who shoved it into the cage.

Both goal-guards made six stops in this period. Three minutes after the period started, Marshall, Columbia's crack wing, was hit in the head with a puck, but continued playing after the time-out period was up. Hamilton's score came after six minutes had passed. Watson Thompson carried the puck from the center of the rink along the wall at the right side, then stopped and shot it past two men who were guarding him. Clever pass work on the part of both teams featured the play for the rest of this period.

The Columbia goal-guard stopped six shots in the third period, and Marks seven. With the score two to nothing against them, Columbia began the period trying several long shots at the cage. Watson Thompson was forced to take time out when he cut his upper lip. After six minutes had passed, Rogers, the Columbia right defense, a Canadian, carried the puck unassisted down to the Hamilton defense and scored a goal from a few feet in front of the cage. Weariness began to tell upon several of the players towards the end of the period, but the play continued to be fast.

TRACK SCHEDULE ROUNDING INTO SHAPE

The following dates have been approved as a nucleus for the spring track schedule:

Penn Relays, Apr. 27-8; Rochester, May 12 at Rochester; Colgate, May 19 at Clinton; Union, May 26 at Clinton.

In connection with the Penn Relays, it is expected that Captain Thompson will again represent the College in the two-mile international run. In the opinion of a high official on the Relays Committee, Thompson is one of the greatest distance runners of the country.

In company with two other colleges, the University of Southern California and Brooklyn Polytechhnic Institute, Hamilton has filed an application for membership in the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America. This association already consists of thirty-five of the leading colleges and universities of the country and holds intercollegiate championship track meets every spring. Hamilton's application will be acted on at the annual conference on Mar. 3rd.

INTERFRATERNITY HOCKEY LEAGUE ARRANGED

As a result of a general desire among Hamilton students to play more hockey, the Interfraternity Council last Wednesday morning discussed plans for an interfraternity hockey league. Each representative at the meeting agreed that his fraternity would enter a team. Members of the varsity or freshman squads will not be allowed to play.

Valentine S. Alison, '24, as Manager of Intramurals, is trying to arrange a schedule during a week when the Russell Sage Rink can be used in the evening. If possible, preliminary games during the week will be followed by finals on the Saturday of the same week to determine the championship. The varsity team, however, will have priority, and with uncertain ice, the fraternity schedule will be subject to rapid change.

"I think it is a good thing," said Mr. Albert I. Prettyman, Physical Director, speaking about interfraternity hockey last Sunday, "and I am glad to see the fraternities take an interest in it."

The Hamilton Y. M. C. A.

The College Y. M. C. A. is a beneficial institution and deserves every support that those here on the Hill can give it. Almost every college and university in the county possesses a Y. M. C. A. of some description, and, without exception, these organizations perform valuable service to their members, individually and collectively. The Hamilton Y. M. C. A., in order to take its proper place among similar organizations in other institutions of learning, must be strongly supported, if it is to do its proper work and carry on as efficiently as it has done in the past.

The advantages offered to students by the Hamilton Y. are many. In the first place, Silliman Hall serves as a building in which the neutral body may hold dances at house party time. It provides a convenient meeting place for the Executive Council, Musical Club tryouts, the M. M. Club, Bible Classes, and other similar organizations. It is used as a general post-office and package-delivery station for the entire college. There is a good pool table upstairs and on the first floor one finds a victrola and records, a piano, a checker board, and a few books and periodicals. Also the Y. M. C. A. furnished from seven to nine reels of motion pictures Saturday evenings

These worth-while advantages must be appreciated and the Y. M. supported more by Hamilton students. Everyone who possibly can, ought to attend the movies in Commons. The larger the attendance, the better the class of films that can be secured, and the larger the amount of money which the Y. M. can put into necessary improvements in Silliman Hall. Every student should join the Y. M. C. A. each September, to give it sufficient capital to carry on its beneficial work. And finally, Silliman Hall and the property therein, should be respected for the advantages it offers, and carefully used, so as to be of the greatest benefit and last as long as possible. In these ways only can our Y. M. C. A. exist unhandicapped by lack of funds, and thus function with the greatest good to the largest number.

Chapel.

Morning and Sunday chapel form an important part of our college life.

But do we hold the proper respect for these chapel exercises? A casual visitor to the Campus would say "No." He would see ten per cent of the student body still on the way to chapel after taps had sounded, in spite of the Hamilton tradition of "present or absent, but never late." He would see cigarettes crushed out against the entrance and others lighted in the vestibule while the men were coming out. He would see but half of the men taking part in the morning hymn. So, for the sake of our regard for the college in the eyes of visitors to the Hill, let us watch out for these faults and, better still, not commit them.

DR. SHEPARD ELECTED TO HONORARY FRENCH CLUB

Hamilton men everywhere will be interested to hear of the activities of Professor William Pierce Shepard, '92, head of the department of Romance Languages, now on sabbatical leave in France.

Dr. Shepard has been devoting his leave to the study of medieval French poetry, giving considerable attention to the works of a little-known troubadour of the Limousin. Professor Shepard recently delivered an address before the "Groupe d'Etudes Limousines a Paris" on this subject. A recent bulletin of this "groupe" announced that he had been admitted to this society, presented by a fellow student at the Ecole des Hautes Etudes.

Such a "groupe" corresponds to a local historic-philological or folklore society in this country, or perhaps a better comparison is to the "state" clubs at our larger universities, such as a California Club at Harvard.

LIT MAKES SPECIAL OFFER

A determined drive is being undertaken by the Lit managerial staff to secure more subscriptions from the student body. Manager Fowler states that the very existence of the magazine is seriously threatened, and that unless many more subscriptions are obtained, Lit will not be able to continue. A special offer is being made of the next five issues before the end of the year for $1.40, and students are urged to take advantage of this low rate, and support a very necessary Hamilton institution.

The next issue of Lit will appear before the end of February. All material, therefore, should be handed in by Sunday, the 17th. Editor Palmer wants especially to get editorials or opinions expressed on college subjects from the undergraduates, which may be of any length.

—William C. Bolenius, '21, is now with the New York Telephone Co. at Elmira.

—At the recent meeting of the American Philological Association at New Haven, Conn., a paper written by Benjamin D. Merrit, '21, on "The Inscriptional and Topographical Evidence for the Site of Spartolus and the Southern Boundary of Bottike" was read by title. The topographical work done by Mr. Merrit while at the American School of Classical Studies at Athens is considered of such importance that a fund is being raised by Princeton University to send Mr. Merritt to Greece to complete his work.

The Best Business Career

Is what every ambitious senior is thinking about at the present time. Life insurance is one of the best, one of the most desirable, and one of the most satisfactory as a permanent calling.

In assets and volume of business, life insurance is one of the three leading businesses of this country, yet the field is comparatively under-developed. Only 7 per cent of the economic value of human life in the United States is covered by insurance. This gives an idea of the big field still to be worked, especially business insurance for firms and corporations.

As to remuneration: Reports of college graduates who have entered business indicate that life insurance is at the very top as a source of income. Now is the time for you to consider what you are going to do after graduation. If you are ambitious and willing to work hard and are interested to know about life insurance, address

FROSH SKATERS WIN FROM SYRACUSE HIGH

Syracuse Central Overwhelmed by Yearling Offensive—Score 8-0

Last Saturday afternoon in the Russell Sage Building, the Buff and Blue freshman hockey team defeated the fast Syracuse Central High School skaters by a score of 8 to 0. From the start, the yearlings outplayed their opponents in every department of the game.

The first period opened up with the Hamilton forward line carrying the rubber down into the Syracuse territory time and again. Four goals were made in the first period, two by Nicholson, and one apiece for VanVleet and Michels. The second period was rather dull and devoid of fast playing, but by this time the Syracuse puck-chasers had started to put all they had into a desperate attempt to cage the rubber. Three goals were made in this period by VanVleet, all by individual work rather than by team play. The third period was more interesting as several times the Syracuse men would have the puck almost in the cage but, by the excellent work of Stanley, a goal was prevented.

The visitors lacked teamwork and they seemed lost on such a large rink, as their defense showed. The Buff and Blue yearlings, although they slipped the rubber in the cage for 8 goals, did not display good passwork, as most of the game consisted of individual playing. VanVleet showed up remarkably well and promises to be one of the best in future years. Nicholson and Michels also showed their ability. Stanley, the crack goal tender, has been recently elected captain of the team.

PROF. IBBOTSON LECTURES

Prof. J. D. Ibbotson gave a very interesting talk about the condition of the German nation before the Men's Club of Park Baptist Church, Utica, last Friday night. Prof. Ibbotson, who spent the summer in Europe, stated some very illuminationg facts. He said that the only way for Germany to save under the present financial conditions is to spend. The falling mark keeps prices soaring continually. He believes the German people are willing to fulfill the treaty conditions, but they are absolutely unable to do so at present.

—Harold S. Dodge, '18, is now teaching in Bound Brook High School, N. J. For the last three years Mr. Dodge was an instructor in Robert College, Constantinople. While there, he was actively engaged in amateur dramatics. During the first summer he studied Russian and Hungarian native dancing under the direction of the head of the ballet at the Vienna Opera. Mr. Dodge spent his last summer in Egypt, staying with a band of dervishes on the desert, from whom he learned the native dancing. The coming summer Mr. Dodge intends to enter upon his stage career.

GEORGE SICARD, '06, HEADS N. Y. INTERCOLLEGIATE TENNIS

At an important meeting of the Executive Committees of the New York State and Metropolitan Lawn Tennis Associations, held Friday night at the Waldorf-Astoria, George Sicard, '06, was appointed head of a special committee on intercollegiate tennis. The fostering of intercollegiate competitions is a new undertaking of these bodies. One tournamnet confined to colleges in New York City, and another to the up-State istitutions are among the possibilities of a campaign designed to raise the standard of play and bring wider recognition for the sport among major activities at the colleges. The up-State tournament will be held in a city in the central part of the State, perhaps Utica. Mr. Sicard coached the Hamilton College tennis team last spring.

—William Griffith, '21, appeared on Feb. 5 in the Theater Guild production, "Peer Gynt", at the Garrick Theater in New York.

Carpe Diem

According to the dope which floated about previous to the past festivities, our gastronomical chapel was decorated—pardon us—fixed up to represent Ye Ancient Baronial Hall. We are glad that we were so informed before seeing it, as we might have pulled the terrible faux pas of thinking that we were in an Egyptian poolroom . The oft lamented and ne'er forgotten spirits of a better day were somewhat in evidence, as some of the devilish barons had been smelling the wassail bowl. Carpe wishes to suggest that the next time such expensive and elaborate decorations, if they may be called such, are attempted, that small boxes of imagination be given out at the door.

Our broad minded faculty has again crashed through by instituting a new sport—Spring Basketball. Garner will be starring again after Easter. Where there is life there is hope!

M. Lanrowitz, the genial assistant in Ma Southworth's hash house, is keeping a close watch on the Biology Laboratory as lobsters are again in evidence—no connections insinuated. However, we may soon expect a delicious formaldehyde-flavored salad some Sunday evening in the near future.

As a result of Cass' success with his home-ly grown moustache, quite a few of the Hamilton Collegians hid behind similar outcrops as a protective measure for Prom. Here's hoping that the Spring cutting will not be delayed.

Advertisements for the musical clubs should have read "Theta Delta Chi—At Home Saturday Afternoon at Three O'clock in Commons Hall." They were at home all right. For those who did not know all the first names of the Theta Delt' Bros., Al cleared up this ignorance in his short monologue. As Al said—he was certainly having a wonderful time up there on the stage. Yes, "Get" was there in the audience. "Let's have a little music, Carl."

Bud Pottle has lost his pledge button to the Beaver Club. Whether this faded away with Prom, or was eradicated by his girl because of unnecessary irritation is a subject of serious discussion among his solicitous classmates.

D. Kittel's girl sang "Baby Blue Eyes" so entrancingly that D. Kittell was compelled to administer several blue (and black) eyes among the bros. before he could place her anywhere and expect to find her there when he came back.

Gil Session blushed warmly the first evening when a little Miss mistook him for the elevator boy, and asked him to bring her some ice-water. He blushed so furiously, in fact, that they thought he was Toaz.

What do you thing of a bright, clean-cut young man who takes a girl in to see his H. Honor marks? Inadvertently offers the excuse to enveigle the sight-seer in that direction, that he hasn't seen them yet. Address opinions to Matty, E. L. S. House.

Hasn't Clements told yet that he spent the weekend in New York?

YAHNUNDASIS DOWNED BY VARSITY SKATERS

Buff and Blue Shows Up Well in Practice Tilt with Uticans—Score 3 to 2

The Hamilton sextet outplayed the Yahnundasis hockey team of Utica in a close game in the Russell Sage rink last Wednesday night. The final score was 3 to 2. The ice was in fine shape and the game was marked by fast skating on both sides. The visitors put up a good batte, but Coach Prettyman made use of the game to put in several substitutes. The contest was originally arranged for a practice game for both teams.

The first period of the game opened with both teams fighting to score. Hamilton took the lead in the first few minutes of play, when W. Thompson caged the puck. Yates of Hamilton also scored another goal in the first period. Casey tallied for the opponents. The rest of the game was a struggle up and down the ice, giving both teams the practice that was desired. Capt. Thompson was taken out soon after the game started, as he had been sick the few days preceding, and also to save his strength for the hard games to come. Tilton of the Yahnundasis aggregation scored in the second period and Russel Thompson of the Buff and Blue sextet scored the winning goal in the third period.

The regular first string men started the game, but later yielded to the second team. The varsity men went back into the game the last few minutes of play. The game was delayed a few minutes at the start by bad roads, which prevented the visitors from arriving on time. As a preliminary game, the Freshman team, composed of Nicholson, Robson, VanVleet, Michels and Stanley played a short scrimmage with the Varsity. The score resulted 3-0 for the Varsity.

The attendance was meagre, only a few students and a scanty number of guests being seated in the gallery.

BUFF AND BLUE TO PLAY QUEENS AND AMHERST

Varsity Opposes Queens Skaters on Thursday—Amherst Five to Play Friday

The coming week has two important contests in store for the Buff and Blue basketball and hockey teams. On Thursday evening Queens College of Kingston, Ontario, will oppose the varsity skaters on Russell Sage Rink. Amherst's basketeers will be here on Saturday night.

The hockey game promises to be by far the hardest proposition Captain Thompson's men have had to face so far this season. Princeton, which defeated the Buff and Blue early in the schedule, fell before McGill. The latter is neck and neck with Queens for the collegiate leadership of Canada, a fact which reveals the strength of the opposition of next Friday evening. The varsity is showing a vast improvement over its work in the Dartmouth and Princeton games and it is certain that the Canadians will meet some of the stiffest opposition of their schedule.

For the past two years Hamilton has defeated Amherst at basketball. This coming Saturday night will see the Purple and White's first appearance on the local court. Last year the score of 31-25 on a foreign court spoke well for the ability of the varsity. This year, playing at home, the Buff and Blue should secure a more decisive victory than either of the previous scores showed. Despite the fact that Garner will not be seen in the varsity lineup, coaches and men are looking for victory.

FRESHMEN DEFEAT WHITESBORO HIGH FIVE

Last Friday night, in the Whitesboro High School gymnasium, the Freshman five won from the fast Whitesboro High School quintet by a score of 40 to 38.

From the first whistle, the lead was taken by the Whitesboro team with the Buff and Blue yearlings hot after them. The lead then seesawed back and forth up to the end of the first half. Almost until the end of the last half, the Frosh team was behind, when within thirty seconds of the end of the period, a basket was caged which tied the score. An extra period was agreed upon to play off the tie and then started a furious scrimmage. At the outset of the final deciding period, there came a fierce assault on the Freshman defense, but the yearlings weathered the storm, and from that time on the defense was like rock and the offense irresistible. Finally Ricketts of Hamilton made a basket which resulted in victory for the Buff and Blue.

The efficient passwork that usually accompanies the yearling team was not evident, as the floor was very small and the men were unused to tactics employed on small courts.

the two most prominent figures on the Rochester team. Brugler was exceptional in his shooting from the field as also was Callaghan both on the foul line and from the floor. Capt. Kirchmaier of Rochester did not play his usual brilliant game and Burrows was substituted for him in the last half. Burrows however did not make any great showing and was taken out and Kirchmaier put back in.

constantly moving toward the west at the rate of six miles a year. Some day it will point true north. When the ship came within 150 miles of 70' N. latitude and 90' W. longitude, the compass refused to work. MacMillan then steered by the stars at night and the wake of the ship by day. For two and a half months they studied the magnetic needle. In June MacMillan is returning to the Arctic regions to continue his study of electrical magnetism.
